When Survival Becomes Harm: Abuse Across the Lifespan

PRESENTED BY

Mental Health America
of South Central Kansas

JUNE 26

8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Ridgepoint Church Activity Center

8000 W 21st St N
Wichita, KS 67205

And the Offender Accountability Subcommittee

Cycles of Violence:
Examining the Shift from Victimization to Perpetration

Meagan Alcorn, LMSW, LAC, and Aerica McIntosh, LMSW, will tackle the incredibly complex and uncomfortable topic of victims turned perpetrators, how to differentiate between resistive and coercive violence, and more.

From Harm to Healing Across Generations with our Victim Experts

Featuring the wisdom and expertise of victim advocates Tracey Gay, Heather Dean, Ashley Williams-Klein, and Cecilia Shook, participants will walk away with a stronger understanding of victim advocacy and ways to partner more effectively to improve victim, family, and community safety for those they serve.

Using PACES to combat ACEs

Though most have heard of ACEs, how many know about PACES and PCEs? Come listen to this fascinating dive into these two concepts as Morgan Campbell, LMSW-T, School Social Worker, provides us with a roadmap complete with tangible and real-world strategies to overcome ACEs and their impact.

When Survival Becomes Harm:
Abuse Across the Lifespan

A critical look at how survival strategies can inadvertently cause harm and how we can respond with insight, compassion, and accountability across the lifespan.
